Bad Symptoms.

The woman who has periods, aches, backache, sees images, spots or specks floating before her eyes, has gnawing or burning full feeling in stomach, going-down feeling in lower abdomen, pelvic region, painful, irregular, or painful, or from weakness or any other cause, should use Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

It has such a long history of cures in such cases, that it is a favorite prescription of the most eminent physicians of the world.

The very best ingredients known to medical science for the cure of women's peculiar ailments enter into its composition. No alcohol, harmful, or habit-forming drug is to be found in the list of its ingredients printed on each bottle wrapper and attested under oath.

In any condition of the female system, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription can do only good—never harm. Its whole effect is to strengthen, invigorate and regulate the whole female system and especially the pelvic organs. When these are deranged in function or affected by disease, the stomach and other organs of digestion become sympathetically deranged, the nerves are weakened, and a long list of bad, unpleasant symptoms follow. Too much must not be expected of this "Favorite Prescription." It will not perform miracles; will not cure tumors or medicine will. It will often prevent them, if taken in time, and thus the operating table and the surgeon's knife may be avoided.

Women suffering from diseases of long standing, are invited to consult Doctor Pierce by letter, free. All correspondence is held as strictly private and securely confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser (2000 pages) is sent free on receipt of 11 one-cent stamps for paper-colored, or 21 stamps for cloth-bound copy. Address as above.

BURNED GIRL ALIVE.

Ruth Amos Wheeler, a 15-year-old stenographer graduate, went to seek a position in New York last Thursday morning and her charred body was found Saturday on a fire-escape at 224 east Seventy-fifth street. There is every reason to believe that she was set on fire while still alive, but unconscious, and burned to death. This was the statement made yesterday by Coroner's Physician O'Hanlon after he had concluded an autopsy.

Kathleen Maeller, or Kate Miller, as she was better known, who has been living with Albert Walter Wolters, the youth in the Tomb, charged with the murder of the Wheeler girl, was taken into custody by the police yesterday after they had kept up a vigilant search for her since the body was found. She was discovered at 122 east One Hundred and Fifth street, where she and Wolters had after a sister of the dead girl, accompanied by the police, had made several visits to their apartments in east Seventy-fifth street. She was reading an account of the murder in a German paper, apparently with much delight, and a broad smile extended over her face. When approached by the policeman she readily admitted her identity and talked freely of Wolters and the case.

For three hours yesterday afternoon she was clanked in the east Sixty-seventh street police station with Assistant District Attorney Turnbull, Captain Carey, of the Homicide Bureau; Inspector Fins and their assistants. At the conclusion of their inquiry the officials stated that the Miller girl—for she is still in her teens—made a valuable and willing witness. Her testimony brought a number of damaging circumstances against Wolters. She vigorously denied all knowledge of the murder, and for the most part, the police declared, they were inclined to believe her story.

Miss Miller said she was born in Germany less than 18 years ago and came to America three years ago. She met Wolters at a dance about a year ago, and last August they started to live together. Miss Miller said he had always been very kind and considerate of her, though she had been vexed at times on account of the extensive correspondence he kept up with other girls. He explained that away, she said, by declaring he did it to better his English. They moved Friday, she said, because he told her as they were being annoyed by detectives they had better seek other quarters.

INCENDIARISM AND MURDER.
J. N. Thomas, a merchant of Palaski, Ga., was shot and fatally wounded at his home in that city early yesterday and Arthur Paris and Walter McBride, negroes, are in jail charged with the crime.

Fire of incendiary origin broke out in the out-house on Thomas's place and when he went to fight the flames he was shot from ambush, a heavy load of shot literally tearing away his hip. It is believed that the building was fired to lure him from his home, as the telephone wires at his house had been cut. A sheriff's posse from Statesboro with bloodhounds, went to the scene, and the dogs taking up the trail followed it to the home of the accused negroes.

The village of Leesville, Anson county, N. C., 45 miles east of Charlotte, was practically wiped off the map by a fire which was discovered at midnight Saturday night and raged until nearly daylight yesterday morning.

Without fire-fighting apparatus, the town was at the mercy of the flames, and the destruction was complete. The fire is believed to have been of incendiary origin. Only a few residences remain of what was Saturday a thriving community and with the wiping out of all the stores the people are left without food or clothing. The loss will reach $250,000, with insignificant insurance.

JUST IN TIME.

Holding up a crucifix and calmly regarding his manic father with terrified eyes, a boy not quite four years old, partly dressed, stood near his three brothers on the banks of the Connecticut river Saturday afternoon at Hartford, Conn. The latter, two, five and seven years old, wild-eyed, wondering, saw their father lift an axe far above his head. Just as he was about to brain his child, a policeman dashed upon him and after a fierce struggle bound him. Valente Obongue, a Pole, had been heard to tell his children to prepare for death. This was soon after he was dispossessed by his landlord. Being turned out of his home had made him mad. No significance was attached to his remark until a neighbor saw him shoulder an axe and start for the river, followed by his four boys. The police were informed in all haste, and they traced him to an isolated section of the river bank. They were just in time.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

Five Mormon missionaries from Utah were expelled from Saxony Saturday as undesirable aliens. They were charged with "conducting an immoral propaganda." The missionaries had already induced many women and girls to emigrate to Utah.

It was brought out at the coroner's inquest at Wheeling, W. Va., Saturday that Ed Rose's death resulted from burns received when his head was held in the furnace of an engine at the Pennsylvania round house by a negro two days ago.

The trial of Mrs. Mary Sneed, Miss Virginia Wardlaw, and Mrs. Caroline B. Martin, indicted for the murder of Mrs. Martin's daughter, Mrs. Okey W. M. Sneed, in Newark, N. J., which was set for April 11, has been postponed to day until May 16 by the Supreme Court of New Jersey.

Forest fires which have been sweeping Allegheny county, threatening destruction to scores of homes and having already inflicted a property loss of $50,000, Saturday resulted in the death of Kinsey Conarty, 10, who was run over by a locomotive while helping firemen fight the flames in Emsworth, a suburb. Oldericks, oil tanks and much timber have been destroyed. Most of the fires were caused by sparks from locomotives.

SWEPT OVER FALLS.

A motorboat, unmanageable by the derangement of the machinery, was swept over the dam of the upper mill pond at Hillsboro, N. H., yesterday, hurrying two young women—Mrs. Melville Daring and Miss Mildred Orange—to their death. William H. Parker, an agent of the Standard Oil Company, in charge of the boat, escaped. It was thrown into shallow water, from which he was able to get ashore.

Swept over a dam in a canoe, Earl P. Kimball, of Oklawaha, Fla., a janitor in Williams College, yesterday lost his life in the Hoosick River, at Valley Falls, N. Y. Kimball was accompanied by a fellow-student, Frederick A. Vieter, of New York, who was rescued.

MYSTERIOUS DEATH.

With a bullet wound in the left side of the head and the face battered almost beyond recognition, the body of Eugene Moore Slinney, a draftsman, 25 years old of Washington, who had been missing from his home since February 17, was found in the Potomac river yesterday afternoon by two Georgetown University students. Coroner Nevitt has issued a certificate of death by suicide. The body apparently had been in the water for many days.

In Slinney's watchcase was the picture of a young and strikingly beautiful woman. The identity of the young woman has not been learned.

Young Slinney left his home on the afternoon of February 17. Putting on his fur-lined overcoat and a black felt hat, he told his sister that he was going for a walk. His whereabouts had since been unknown.
